SAROVA STANLEY WINS KENYA'S LEADING HOTEL

"As the industry bounces back better and stronger, Kenya should take its place at the high table of world-class tourism destinations"

Graham Cooke, Founder WTA.

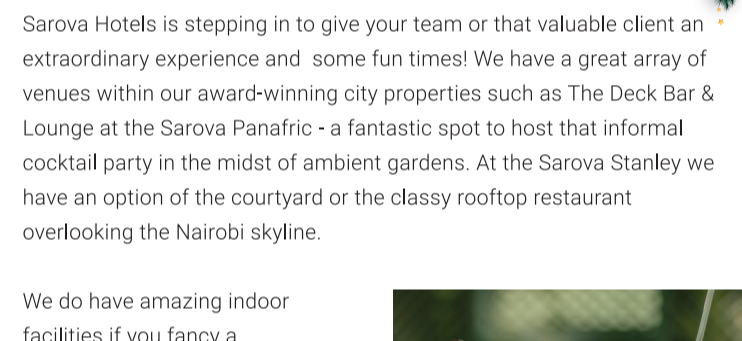

A truly memorable night it was as a gathering of tourism's elite and VIP stakeholders converged in pulsating Nairobi City for the much-anticipated World Tourism Awards (WTA) 2022 gala dinner ceremony that helped to seal Kenya as an ultimate travel destination. Our very own Sarova Stanley scooped the award for Kenya's Leading hotel.

Sarova Stanley is the first luxury hotel in Nairobi opened in 1902, Eminent world personalities such as Her Majesty the late Queen Elizabeth II and Ernest Hemingway have been graciously hosted here while vibrant Nairobi Stock Exchange was birthed here in the 1950s. It is now the Exchange Bar, a classy watering hole favorite among many. The first bottle of world-renowned Tusker Beer was opened here, at the then "Long Bar" in 1922.

The win for Sarova Stanley represents a dedication to innovative global cuisine and great customer service while still preserving delicate world and Kenyan history.
