

CALLING ALL FOODIES!

Happening every last Sunday of the month at one of the trendiest spots in town, Sarova Panafri's Brunch Sundays is exactly what you need to start your day in style. The Deck pool bar & lounge, a secluded outdoor space far from the mad dash of Nairobi's central business district is where it all happens. The beautiful setup easily compliments clear blue skies for the coolest vibes and the most perfect "Instagram-able" moments live here.

Served al-fresco, the food fair is like no other as lovers of the classic brunch have plenty to dig into, as do those with a more adventurous palate, not forgetting an enticing serving of signature cocktails and bottomless bubbly to boot. We recommend the Bar on Ice, which takes sushi delights to the next level while the traditional tandoori chicken and biryani dishes are given a Sarova rendition elevated by sauces such as the lime onion mustard jam and the delightful chili and tomato relish. The desserts are ever so decadent - a wide array which includes the frangipani peach crumble tart is unmissable while the entertainment lineup is sure to please. Make a date ... you might just bump into a celebrity or two.

70 YEARS A SOVEREIGN...

The Queen of England holds a very special place for the Sarova family. Renowned the world over for her lifelong service as monarch of England, a duty she diligently executed for 70 full years, the late Queen Elizabeth II was a beloved matriarch and fondly revered for her compassion.

Back here, the Sarova Stanley Hotel reflects on Her Majesty's two momentous visits to the hotel while on tour in 1952, staying with us as Princess and shortly after as Queen upon the untimely demise of her Father King George IV. Strategically placed white and black portraits of the Queen's luncheon act as subtle reminders of her stay and we pay our respects with gratitude, for giving Sarova a place in history, exceptional hospitality right at the heart of our character.

KENYA'S 2022 PEACEFUL ELECTIONS A TRUE MILESTONE

Highly anticipated and truly momentous, the just concluded 2022 Kenyan elections will go down in history as one of the most peacefully conducted voting processes. Hotly contested, the outcome saw His Excellency William Ruto elected as the 5th President of the Kenyan republic.

The angst, however, felt across the nation and even in the tourism sector prior to the polls was reflective of previous election periods whose outcomes had devastating ripple effects. This time around, with an almost instantaneous return to normalcy, Sarova Hotels & Resorts continues to enjoy steady occupancy with an expected high occupancy rate during the festive season. We remain consistent while embracing innovative ideas to improve our service delivery for the goodwill extended to us.

Our gratitude goes to all Kenyans who exercised their right to vote and for choosing peace above all else, a sure sign of a well-matured democracy. We look forward to steady economic growth and wish His Excellency President Ruto a successful term in office.
