SAROVA STANLEY SCOOPS KENYA'S LEADING HOTEL AWARD IN THIS YEAR'S WORLD TRAVEL AWARDS.

NOVEMBER 2022 | PRESS RELEASE

October, 14th 2022... Kenya's iconic city-based hotel, Sarova Stanley, scooped Kenya's Leading Hotel award in the World Travel Awards (WTA) for 2022. The historic awards were held in Kenya for the first time at the iconic Kenyatta International Conference Center (KICC).

Sarova Stanley has over the years remained Kenya's go-to hotel, attracting visitors the world over for its rich, delicately preserved history and long-standing tradition of offering unforgettable experiences and world-class services to its customers.

The 5-Star luxury hotel had been nominated in three categories; Kenya's Leading Hotel for 2022, Kenya's Leading Luxury Hotel for 2022, and Kenya's Leading Hotel Suite for 2022.

The latest win comes at a time when the hotel is showcasing its product innovation having embraced emerging industry trends that ensure that it continues being the best, not just in Kenya but in the world.

"This is not our win. It is a win for our esteemed customers and all those who believe in us and our services. It is a clear testimony of the invisible currency that we have always traded in; trust. We shall always strive to live by the expectations of our customers and always be ahead of the ever-changing trends," said Sarova Hotels and Resorts Managing Director Jimi Kariuki.
